

LAST EDITION.

Moving Day

is drawing near. Begin now and hunt a house through

Post-Dispatch Rent Lists

VOL. 47. NO. 206.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

TUESDAY EVENING—ST. LOUIS—MARCH 3, 1896.—TEN PAGES.

LAST EDITION.

Post-Dispatch
Want Columns

Need no fake ads to bolster them.

PRICE IN ST. LOUIS, ONE CENT.
OUTSIDE ST. LOUIS, TWO CENTS.

If You Want Employment Advertise in P.-D. Want Columns.

MR. FRANCIS' "ROLL OF HONOR."

Brief Sketches of Some of the Statesmen on It.

WHY THEY ARE GOLD BUGS.

Eminently Respectable Gentlemen Affiliated With Corporations and Without Influence With the People.

Analysis of Chief Factorist Francis' "roll of honor" is productive of results that would be interesting but for the fact that everybody acquainted even partially with political conditions and situations in Missouri already discredited them.

It can be asserted as a rule that fully three-fifths of those who signed the Chief Factorist's "roll of honor" at the Planters' Hotel conference last Saturday are connected directly or indirectly with the corporation interests of the State that are most active in politics.

Leaving out of the count the St. Louisans whose names appear on the list and whose corporation connections are notorious, the analysis shows that these men called themselves the "elite" of Missouri, and that they come from the other big cities and larger towns in the State.

For instance, the fifth name on the list is that of Mr. Michael K. Kansan City. As a corporation lobbyist Mr. Morrow is superior in some respects to so great a man as Col. Bill Morris of the Missouri Pacific or Col. John C. St. Gaudens of the Union Pacific.

He has assisted in "shaping" legislation at Jefferson City for the last fifteen years and would be as famous as either Col. St. Gaudens or Col. Clegg if it were not for the fact that he is a "smother article." He is the attorney for the street railroad system of Kansas City, but very rarely appears in the office of the Legislature. He goes to the Municipal Assembly of the Kaw metropolis, and shifts his base of operations to Jefferson City when the Legislature meets.

Ex-Congressman John Corrovo, Bonniville, whose name follows Mr. Morrow's, is attorney for the Missouri Pacific Railroad, and Col. Morrison has the employ of that corporation for many years.

In fact, it was his connection with the Missouri Pacific that induced him to defect from the Democratic nomination for Congress by Hon. John T. Heard in the memorable contest in Sedalia in 1884.

G. W. Morrison, of St. Louis, who comes next on the "roll of honor" is another corporation lawyer, as is also N. D. Thurmond of Fulton. J. W. Mosby of Palmyra in the same class. Both of these gentlemen, however, have thus far had their powers confined by the "pent-up Utica" of their local environment, though they are all granted a weakening of the bonds and are said to be very promising.

A. M. Pettit of Wayne County, another "roll of honor" man is a plain lawyer who has been a great success through the medium of his son-in-law.

Mr. Pettit is the father-in-law of one Morrison, a lawyer or an attorney in Washington from Wayne County to get a slice of pie. He was given a position in the legal bureau of the War Department, and less than a year ago was promoted to the staff of the Judge Advocate General of the Army and given a commission by the President, which set all the army in a roar. It was then it was discovered that he telegraphed the news to Wayne County of Col. Morrison's good luck Father-in-law Pettit jumped astride the scales of justice and got away scot-free singing the praises of Grover Cleveland and the Administration's financial policy up and down the public highways and byways.

Ex-State Senator H. W. Johnson of Montgomery County, who was present at the secret caucus of the Republicans in the Senate decided to call the conference of last Saturday, has been the principal railroad attorney in his county for a number of years.

State Senator T. H. Hobson, of Marion County, though young and without much experience, except as a legislator, has displayed such ability as to attract the favorable attention of the heads of the two departments of the railroads in the State as to have been designated as the Washabaw lawyer of Marion.

W. G. Green and J. S. Francisco of Butler divide the railroad practice of Bates County, and the Missouri Pacific accounts them as its chief legal advisers in that immediate vicinity.

As the representatives of the representative congressional districts of the conference, that of the First and Fourth will serve as an example.

There are ten counties in the First District, and ten in the Second, who were represented here Saturday. They were Marion and Shelby.

There are eighteen counties in the Fourth District, and only three in the Second. One of the three representatives from that county gave vent to an impassioned appeal to save exposures of the weakness of gold money, and the third, the one who signed the Chief Factorist Francis' "roll of honor," confessed that the Organization Committee be made up of two members from each Congressional district.

"For God's sake, Mr. Chairman," screamed this raw statesman from his seat in the rear of the hall, "don't insist on advertising our organization to the world, and let us choose both our members from Dunklin County. There isn't an anti-slavery man in any of the eighteen counties comprising the district except Dunklin."

Though the appeal was earnest, and the situation grave, it after could not be suppressed, nor could he had had his bug-squeakers until he had had his bug-squeakers.

One of the best posted politicians in the State said: "I was in Jefferson City Monday and while there I saw one of the old and department clerks went very carefully over the Francis' "roll of honor." The sum of our analysis of the list was that while it contained names of men of high social standing, men of respectability in their respective communities, such as bankers, railroad lawyers, etc., yet not one of them represented any one of the eight counties, and all of them together couldn't carry one election precinct in the State."

ALLEGED HUSBAND KILLER.

signed it had come here to put themselves on record for sound money," said the Colonel to a Post-Dispatch reporter. "But imagine my surprise when I saw Mr. Ladd, the man in the front of the stage of entertainment Hall and blantly proclaimed that he was Democrat because he was a free trader. Well, I told him that every year I bought the show of dear old Sam Randall would come shrieking and gibbering through the hall because I didn't feel myself inclined to arise in my seat and start a stampede from the building."

The free trader can be elected Governor of Missouri this year, and if Francis doesn't muzzle Lehman no Democrat can be elected to anything."

KEELEY WANTS A PATENT.

The Motor Man Harnesses a Real Force in a Real Manner."

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 3.—When the Keely motor stockholders met to hold their adjourned annual meeting they received a report from a committee on reorganization which set forth that the inventor had surrendered his patent rights to the company and that as soon as he recovered from the effect of a recent accident he will apply for letters patent after returning to the States. The committee has made counter-propositions on the questions of reorganization.

According to the account Mr. Keely exhibited to the committee his direct engine connected with and operating a device termed by him vibratory dynamo system. The power was derived from the engine to the dynamo by means of a belt.

The experiment was highly successful and demonstrated to the board that Keely had assisted in "shaping" legislation at Jefferson City for the last fifteen years and would be as famous as either Col. St. Gaudens or Col. Clegg if it were not for the fact that he is a "smother article."

He is the attorney for the street railroad system of Kansas City, but very rarely appears in the office of the Legislature. He is the author of the Municipal Assembly of the Kaw metropolis, and shifts his base of operations to Jefferson City when the Legislature meets.

For instance, the fifth name on the list is that of Mr. Michael K. Kansan City.

As a corporation lobbyist Mr. Morrow is superior in some respects to so great a man as Col. Bill Morris of the Missouri Pacific or Col. John C. St. Gaudens of the Union Pacific.

This report was favorably received by the board, and the meeting adjourned until April 2.

THE KENTUCKY CONTEST.

Republicans Unable to Agree Upon a Senatorial Candidate.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 3.—The Republicans are in a great old muddle, and there is no Moses to help them out of the Suez Canal. Congressman Lewis Moore looks seem to be falling and it is not known whether he will be able to nominate at the caucus to-night, although they declare it will be crowded. At the joint ballot to-day Blackburn received 100 votes, and the Republicans gave 23 to Mayor Todd of Louisville.

In the Werner-Tompkins contest the House failed to adopt either the majority or minority report, thus allowing the Democrat Tompkins to retain his seat. The vote was 100 to 97. The Republicans voting with Democrats.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO'S STRIKE.

The State Board of Arbitration Declines to Investigate.

CHICAGO, March 3.—Clothing manufacturers and striking cutters will be left alone by the State Board of Arbitration. Judge Thornton, Col. W. P. Reid and Charles J. Keeler met last night and decided not to interfere in the strike. The board is empowered to make a decision.

About 8:30 both fighters and their followers arrived at the battle ground, and without any talk the fight began, and with the rapidly growing crowd formed a kind of square in which the young men began operations.

It was seen at once that Lindley did not know what to do from a Dalsarian flourish, and the one blow that he persisted in using was something between a shove with both feet and a kick with one foot.

The younger boy wished to avoid trouble because there were ladies present. Lindley was not a party to the fight, but every minute. Finally he swung his right arm, intending to push both of Moorshead's hands and fingers, and the blow, which he intended, struck the wall and scraped all the skin off the back of his hand.

Lindley had the trouble for that night, but Lindley wanted revenge, and the affair Monday night was the outcome.

When the crowd around the Arcade got pretty big Police Officer Rice arrived and everybody "moved on," not however, to the police station, but to the place which would be pulled off at Goodfellow and Delmar avenues, where a vacant lot and an electric light formed a desirable combination.

About 8:30 both fighters and their followers arrived at the battle ground, and without any talk the fight began, and with the rapidly growing crowd formed a kind of square in which the young men began operations.

It was seen at once that Lindley did not know what to do from a Dalsarian flourish, and the one blow that he persisted in using was something between a shove with both feet and a kick with one foot.

The younger boy wished to avoid trouble because there were ladies present. Lindley was not a party to the fight, but every minute.

Finally he swung his right arm, intending to push both of Moorshead's hands and fingers, and the blow, which he intended, struck the wall and scraped all the skin off the back of his hand.

Lindley had the trouble for that night, but Lindley wanted revenge, and the affair Monday night was the outcome.

When the crowd around the Arcade got pretty big Police Officer Rice arrived and everybody "moved on," not however, to the police station, but to the place which would be pulled off at Goodfellow and Delmar avenues, where a vacant lot and an electric light formed a desirable combination.

About 8:30 both fighters and their followers arrived at the battle ground, and without any talk the fight began, and with the rapidly growing crowd formed a kind of square in which the young men began operations.

It was seen at once that Lindley did not know what to do from a Dalsarian flourish, and the one blow that he persisted in using was something between a shove with both feet and a kick with one foot.

The younger boy wished to avoid trouble because there were ladies present. Lindley was not a party to the fight, but every minute.

Finally he swung his right arm, intending to push both of Moorshead's hands and fingers, and the blow, which he intended, struck the wall and scraped all the skin off the back of his hand.

Lindley had the trouble for that night, but Lindley wanted revenge, and the affair Monday night was the outcome.

When the crowd around the Arcade got pretty big Police Officer Rice arrived and everybody "moved on," not however, to the police station, but to the place which would be pulled off at Goodfellow and Delmar avenues, where a vacant lot and an electric light formed a desirable combination.

About 8:30 both fighters and their followers arrived at the battle ground, and without any talk the fight began, and with the rapidly growing crowd formed a kind of square in which the young men began operations.

It was seen at once that Lindley did not know what to do from a Dalsarian flourish, and the one blow that he persisted in using was something between a shove with both feet and a kick with one foot.

The younger boy wished to avoid trouble because there were ladies present. Lindley was not a party to the fight, but every minute.

Finally he swung his right arm, intending to push both of Moorshead's hands and fingers, and the blow, which he intended, struck the wall and scraped all the skin off the back of his hand.

Lindley had the trouble for that night, but Lindley wanted revenge, and the affair Monday night was the outcome.

When the crowd around the Arcade got pretty big Police Officer Rice arrived and everybody "moved on," not however, to the police station, but to the place which would be pulled off at Goodfellow and Delmar avenues, where a vacant lot and an electric light formed a desirable combination.

About 8:30 both fighters and their followers arrived at the battle ground, and without any talk the fight began, and with the rapidly growing crowd formed a kind of square in which the young men began operations.

It was seen at once that Lindley did not know what to do from a Dalsarian flourish, and the one blow that he persisted in using was something between a shove with both feet and a kick with one foot.

The younger boy wished to avoid trouble because there were ladies present. Lindley was not a party to the fight, but every minute.

Finally he swung his right arm, intending to push both of Moorshead's hands and fingers, and the blow, which he intended, struck the wall and scraped all the skin off the back of his hand.

Lindley had the trouble for that night, but Lindley wanted revenge, and the affair Monday night was the outcome.

When the crowd around the Arcade got pretty big Police Officer Rice arrived and everybody "moved on," not however, to the police station, but to the place which would be pulled off at Goodfellow and Delmar avenues, where a vacant lot and an electric light formed a desirable combination.

About 8:30 both fighters and their followers arrived at the battle ground, and without any talk the fight began, and with the rapidly growing crowd formed a kind of square in which the young men began operations.

It was seen at once that Lindley did not know what to do from a Dalsarian flourish, and the one blow that he persisted in using was something between a shove with both feet and a kick with one foot.

The younger boy wished to avoid trouble because there were ladies present. Lindley was not a party to the fight, but every minute.

Finally he swung his right arm, intending to push both of Moorshead's hands and fingers, and the blow, which he intended, struck the wall and scraped all the skin off the back of his hand.

Lindley had the trouble for that night, but Lindley wanted revenge, and the affair Monday night was the outcome.

When the crowd around the Arcade got pretty big Police Officer Rice arrived and everybody "moved on," not however, to the police station, but to the place which would be pulled off at Goodfellow and Delmar avenues, where a vacant lot and an electric light formed a desirable combination.

About 8:30 both fighters and their followers arrived at the battle ground, and without any talk the fight began, and with the rapidly growing crowd formed a kind of square in which the young men began operations.

It was seen at once that Lindley did not know what to do from a Dalsarian flourish, and the one blow that he persisted in using was something between a shove with both feet and a kick with one foot.

The younger boy wished to avoid trouble because there were ladies present. Lindley was not a party to the fight, but every minute.

Finally he swung his right arm, intending to push both of Moorshead's hands and fingers, and the blow, which he intended, struck the wall and scraped all the skin off the back of his hand.

Lindley had the trouble for that night, but Lindley wanted revenge, and the affair Monday night was the outcome.

When the crowd around the Arcade got pretty big Police Officer Rice arrived and everybody "moved on," not however, to the police station, but to the place which would be pulled off at Goodfellow and Delmar avenues, where a vacant lot and an electric light formed a desirable combination.

About 8:30 both fighters and their followers arrived at the battle ground, and without any talk the fight began, and with the rapidly growing crowd formed a kind of square in which the young men began operations.

It was seen at once that Lindley did not know what to do from a Dalsarian flourish, and the one blow that he persisted in using was something between a shove with both feet and a kick with one foot.

The younger boy wished to avoid trouble because there were ladies present. Lindley was not a party to the fight, but every minute.

Finally he swung his right arm, intending to push both of Moorshead's hands and fingers, and the blow, which he intended, struck the wall and scraped all the skin off the back of his hand.

Lindley had the trouble for that night, but Lindley wanted revenge, and the affair Monday night was the outcome.

When the crowd around the Arcade got pretty big Police Officer Rice arrived and everybody "moved on," not however, to the police station, but to the place which would be pulled off at Goodfellow and Delmar avenues, where a vacant lot and an electric light formed a desirable combination.

About 8:30 both fighters and their followers arrived at the battle ground, and without any talk the fight began, and with the rapidly growing crowd formed a kind of square in which the young men began operations.

It was seen at once that Lindley did not know what to do from a Dalsarian flourish, and the one blow that he persisted in using was something between a shove with both feet and a kick with one foot.

The younger boy wished to avoid trouble because there were ladies present. Lindley was not a party to the fight, but every minute.

Finally he swung his right arm, intending to push both of Moorshead's hands and fingers, and the blow, which he intended, struck the wall and scraped all the skin off the back of his hand.

Lindley had the trouble for that night, but Lindley wanted revenge, and the affair Monday night was the outcome.

When the crowd around the Arcade got pretty big Police Officer Rice arrived and everybody "moved on," not however, to the police station, advising to calm the popular clamor by representing that it really makes no difference to us if the insurgents are recognized as belligerents, as we are not represented by the masses, but the authorities hope for popular support of their attitude when peace is restored.

Minister Taylor expresses complete satisfaction with the attitude of the Government after all he has done.

The following is from The Times about the history of the Cuban war: "The Spanish force in the field, before the end of March, will consist of 150,000 men, of whom 20,000 are with Spain, should his electors in Congress require it, he will resist the execution of Congress. The American statesmen will do the same. The Monroe doctrine. It is certain that Spain will not recede and it is difficult to see what benefit the United States will derive from war."

THE PACE THAT KILLS.

It is a "Jimmie" Dowling to Delirium Tremens and the Hospital.

James B. Dowling late a familiar figure on race courses and once a swell young fellow about town, is at the City Hospital for alcoholism.

The only reply the Government has yet made to the charge of inhumanity against Gen. Weyler is that of the insurgents themselves. There is a strong intimation, however, that instructions will be speedily sent to General Weyler to give him an order which would justify the United States in interfering on the ground of common humanity.

CANOVAS' STATEMENT.

The Cuban War Not Conducted on Inhuman Lines.

MADRID, March 3.—Premier Canovas has made the following statement:

"I cannot understand how some people of the United States have got into their minds that we, or rather Gen. Weyler, is carrying on a war in Cuba on inhuman lines. It is all false. Nothing more than a tissue of falsehoods. I venture to say that up to the present no American Consul has been able to notify his Government of a single instance of cruelty on Weyler's part, for the simple reason that no such thing occurred."

"As a matter of fact, I have given the most strict orders to General Weyler that no human inhumane or cruelties have been perpetrated at all. The latter are all the imagination of friends of Cuba, who are not in the country. They are not in the country."

Lately Dowling has been doing楮 work and his home address is 3745 Olive. His many friends will be greatly surprised to learn of his present condition at the City Hospital.

HE LIKES THE HORSES.

And Henry Penningroth's Wife Wants a Divorce.

According to his wife's petition for divorce, filed in the Circuit Court Tuesday, Henry Penningroth is a victim of the winter race tracks and the sensations engendered by them. Charlotte Penningroth is the plaintiff.

She alleges that when she married Penningroth in Madison County, Ill., in 1884, he was a sober and industrious man. She now claims he is threatening to kill her if she is threatening to kill himself, to her great mental worry.

She claims that for the past five years he has set to work systematically to make her life miserable. She also claims that when their baby died, he refused to pay for its burial and forced her to do so. Of late he has been spending his time away from home and she avers that he is squandering his means among improper characters on race tracks.

She has not seen him since December 12 last, but she shall keep it within bounds. To-day she expects to meet him charged a crowd of students. The civil guard did well, because I gave orders that there was to be no disturbance of the public peace."

LONDON EDITORS OBJECT.

For the Most Part Their Sympathies Are With Spain.

LONDON, March 3.—The afternoon newspapermen of this city again refer at length to the Cuban situation, in which everybody here is much interested.

The Western Gazette says: "The House of Commons' resolution is stiffer than the Senate's, and is calculated to further the establishment and indemnification in Madrid, and other Spanish ports, of those which further is the prostitution of Democratic government for electioneering purposes to be allowed to go? The American Congress' attitude is not clear, but it is not to be expected abroad, but its influence in the conduct of foreign affairs and the strange result of the rapid republicanism is that it is forcing one man more and more into power."

The St. James Gazette says: "The language of Congress is clear. The Cuban disturbance, Spain is now face to face with the declared hostility of the representatives of the American people, and an immediate reply must be made. How far, then, does the indignation that will be creditable to their spirit and deserve the sympathy of Europe. If war is the result, the jingoism of the Times and Standard will be shown where, outside of the United States, the Americans will find any support for their united efforts to assist us."

The Globe says: "The situation is very perilous. There are other interests in Cuba besides the American, and maybe there are English ones, too. But the world is watching the look on while the United States develops the remarkable Monroe doctrine which seems to forbid anybody to interfere with anything on the island. And it is the English who encourages that odious bird to poke its beak into the business of everybody else."

The Times says: "The situation is expressed in the House of Representatives, and has done well to smooth the rough edges of the Senate's resolution. The recognition of the rebels as a class, and the recognition of the conqueror, awkward complications might be brought about. On the other hand, there is nothing to show that Gen. Weyler will be compelled to leave Cuba, and Britain in any case is but remotely concerned in the business. There is the broad fact that Cuba under Spain is perpetually revolting, rebelling, and rebelling. Now, therefore, it is especially anxious to back Spain through thick and thin, especially through thin."

The House Resolutions.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 3.—As wired the Post-Dispatch last evening, the House adopted the Cuban belligerency resolutions by a vote of 137 to 17. The action was:

Resolved by the House of Representatives that, in the opinion of Congress, a state of public war exists in Cuba, and that the United States should observe a strict neutrality between the belligerents.

Resolved, That Congress deplores the destruction of life and property, caused by the war now waging in the island, and believes that the only legitimate solution of the contest, in the interest of the people of Cuba and other nations, would be the establishment of a Government by the choice of the people of Cuba. It is the sense of Congress that the Government of the United States should use its good offices and friendly influences to that end.

Resolved, That the United States has not intervened in struggles between the European Government and their colonies on the continent; but from the very close relations between the United States and the people of Cuba and other nations, would be the establishment of a Government by the choice of the people of Cuba. It is the sense of Congress that the stock purchase was negotiated at a price not far from 90 cents on full trade, owing to the unexpectedly open winter, and the consequently sharpened competition; were the market to remain open, the price would be 90 cents. The firm, Messrs. Stern & Co., with their accustomed frankness stepped in and offered to insure the price in a short time. An agreement was quickly reached. The Olive Street price may be approximately 90 cents.

During this week a large force of men will be engaged in transferring furniture and household goods from the Olive Street furniture store to the new building at 11th and Olive streets, where every effort is being made to find room for the same. This congestion will be shortly relieved by the removal of the old furniture.

The Republic's First Decree.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The Cuban Government has authorized an issue of postage stamps to be used in the post office of all mail matter within the limits of Cuba, as well as to foreign countries, for the use of a special messenger service to correspondents in this line of trade.

This is the first decree issued by the new Government from which a source of revenue is to be created.

The Flight French Press.

PARIS, March 5.—The newspapers of this morning are silent about the Cuban question. The Figaro, for example, says: "The Spanish force in the field, before the end of March, will consist of 150,000 men, of whom 20,000 are with Spain, should his electors in Congress require it, he will resist the execution of Congress." The American statesmen will do the same. The Monroe doctrine. It is certain that Spain will not recede and it is difficult to see what benefit the United States will derive from war."

STONE'S FIGHT FOR SILVER.

The Governor's Strong Appeal to Missouri Democrats.

RIGHTS OF THE MAJORITY.

Voters Must Arouse Themselves If the Delegates to Chicago Are to Voice the State's Will.

Gov. Stone, who was in the city Tuesday, has given the Post-Dispatch a copy of the following autograph letter which he has sent to Democrats in Missouri:

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 1, 1896.

Dear Sirs: I would like to write you a personal autograph letter if I could, but as I desire to write a large number of letters to Democrats throughout the State, I am, in order to do that, compelled to resort to the plan of a circular. I know that circulars are frequently treated with more or less indifference, but a resort to that method of communication is a necessity in this instance, and I trust you will accord to this the same consideration you would give it if it were an autograph letter.

My purpose in sending out this communication is to promote the effort I am making in conjunction with others to organize those Democrats in Missouri who favor a resolution in our national platform declaring for the immediate free coinage of silver into standard dollars at the ratio of 16 to 1, and the nomination of candidates for President and Vice-President, who openly favor that policy. The State Convention will select delegates to the National Convention, all meet at Sedalia on April 15 next. The county delegations will be selected from the Sedalia convention will nominate different dates during the latter part of March and the first days of April. The dates for the county conventions will be fixed by each county committee of the State.

It wasn't long before Dowling traveled with the fast set and went to the Sedalia trotters in town and every day along the boulevard his spangled team was an object for all to see. "Jimmie" was known as "the double cross," as he was supposed to be a race horse owner and pined for a reputation as a "Pittsburgh Phil" as a pugger. So he was a pugger and spattered the services of Fred Foster, since famous as the owner of Dr. Rice and proprietor of the Sportman's Club. "Jimmie" was a failure, however, and Dowling always accused Foster of giving him the "double cross."

Dowling was aspired to be a race horse owner and pined for a reputation as a "Pittsburgh Phil" as a pugger. So he was a pugger and spattered the services of Fred Foster, since famous as the owner of Dr. Rice and proprietor of the Sportman's Club. "Jimmie" was a failure, however, and Dowling always accused Foster of giving him the "double cross."

But he gained a reputation as a wine glass, and spattered the services of the first magistrate.

He was a pugger and spattered the services of Fred Foster, since famous as the owner of Dr. Rice and proprietor of the Sportman's Club. "Jimmie" was a failure, however, and Dowling always accused Foster of giving him the "double cross."

Henry Folk and other sporting gentlemen were Dowling's constant companions.

It wasn't long before Dowling's entire fortune was gone and he had to seek work. For three years past he has been in what the sports call "hard luck." He held his head sport, however, and generally managed to get along.

Lately Dowling has been doing楮 work and his home address is 3745 Olive. His many friends will be greatly surprised to learn of his present condition at the City Hospital.

HE LIKES THE HORSES.

And Henry Penningroth's Wife Wants a Divorce.

According to his wife's petition for divorce, filed in the Circuit Court Tuesday, Henry Penningroth is a victim of the winter race tracks and the sensations engendered by them. Charlotte Penningroth is the plaintiff.

She alleges that when she married Penningroth in Madison County, Ill., in 1884, he was a sober and industrious man. She now claims he is threatening to kill her if she is threatening to kill himself, to her great mental worry.

She claims that for the past five years he has set to work systematically to make her life miserable. She also claims that when their baby died, he refused to pay for its burial and forced her to do so. Of late he has been spending his time away from home and she avers that he is squandering his means among improper characters on race tracks.

She has not seen him since December 12 last, but she shall keep it within bounds. To-day she expects to meet him charged a crowd of students. The civil guard did well, because I gave orders that there was to be no disturbance of the public peace."

VACANT LOT BILL BOARDS.

An Ordinance Which Aims to Declare Them Nuisances.

Delegate Lloyd has a rod in pickle for those vandals who invade vacant lots along the boulevards and revolt the public eye by erecting those huge bill boards which cover almost every building, signs and group pictures. Mr. Lloyd will introduce a bill in the House of Delegates when it again meets making a penalty for any one having a bill board worth $500 a year, and an income of $3,000 a year, but claims he will squander his means if not restrained by the ordinance.

He asks the court to prevent him from disposing of any of his property until he can get her decree and alimony. She wants the custody of the child.

FOR EVERY DRINK SOLD.

Texas Judge Instructs a Grand Jury to Indict Saloon Men.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

TEXARKANA, Ark., March 3.—Judge John L. Shepard presided the district court in Bowie County yesterday. He made a strong charge to the Grand jury against the recent opening of saloons in Texarkana, Tex., and instructed them to find a true bill against saloon men for every drink sold.

He denounced the action of the saloon men in opening under pretext of technology as an outrage against law and order, and a violation of the voice of the people as expressed at the ballot box in the late prohibition election.

BIG FURNITURE DEAL.

May Stern & Co. Buy Out the Olive Street Furniture Co.

The retirement from business of the Olive Street Furniture Co., 1007 Olive street, was marked by one of the largest furniture deals that has occurred in St. Louis in recent years. An arrangement was perfected Monday by which the entire stock of the retiring firm was purchased by May Stern & Co. The details of the purchase, however, were not publicly disclosed, but it is understood on credit authority that the purchase was negotiated at a price not far from 90 cents on full trade.

Dull trade, owing to the unexpectedly open winter, and the consequently sharpened competition, were the main factors in the decline of the Olive Street Furniture Co., retiring from the market.

Its business, however, was not entirely discontinued. It had a large amount of furniture in stock, however, and offered to sell it at a low price.

May Stern & Co., with their accustomed frankness stepped in and offered to insure the price in a short time. An agreement was quickly reached. The Olive Street price may be approximately 90 cents.

During this week a large force of men will be engaged in transferring furniture and household goods from the Olive Street furniture store to the new building at 11th and Olive streets, where every effort is being made to find room for the same. This congestion will be shortly relieved by the removal of the old furniture.

The Republic's First Decree.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The Cuban Government has authorized an issue of postage stamps to be used in the post office of all mail matter within the limits of Cuba, as well as to foreign countries, for the use of a special messenger service to correspondents in this line of trade.

This is the first decree issued by the new Government from which a source of revenue is to be created.

The Flight French Press.

PARIS, March 5.—The newspapers of this morning are silent about the Cuban question. The Figaro, for example, says: "The Spanish force in the field, before the end of March, will consist of 150,000 men, of whom 20,000 are with Spain, should his electors in Congress require it, he will resist the execution of Congress." The American statesmen will do the same. The Monroe doctrine. It is certain that Spain will not recede and it is difficult to see what benefit the United States will derive from war."

Minister Taylor expresses complete satisfaction with the attitude of the Government after all he has done.

The following is from The Times about the history of the Cuban war: "The Spanish force in the field, before the end of March, will consist of 150,000 men, of whom 20,000 are with Spain, should his electors in Congress require it, he will resist the execution of Congress." The American statesmen will do the same. The Monroe doctrine. It is certain that Spain will not recede and it is difficult to see what benefit the United States will derive from war."

Nevertheless, the Spanish funds again declined heavily to-day in London and the Committee of inquiry.

The only reply the Government has yet made to the charge of inhumanity against Gen. Weyler is that of the insurgents themselves. There is a strong intimation, however, that instructions will be speedily sent to General Weyler to give him an order which would justify the United States in interfering on the ground of common humanity.

CANOVAS' STATEMENT.

The Cuban War Not Conducted on Inhuman Lines.

MADRID, March 3.—Premier Canovas has made the following statement:

"I cannot understand how some people of the United States have got into their minds that we, or rather Gen. Weyler, is carrying on a war in Cuba on inhuman lines. It is all false. Nothing more than a tissue of falsehoods. I venture to say that up to the present no American Consul has been able to notify his Government of a single instance of cruelty on Weyler's part, for the simple reason that no such thing occurred."

"As a matter of fact, I have given the most strict orders to General Weyler that no human inhumane or cruelties have been perpetrated at all. The latter are all the imagination of friends of Cuba, who are not in the country. They are not in the country."

LADY'S FIGHT FOR SILVER.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The Cuban Government has authorized an issue of postage stamps to be used in the post office of all mail matter within the limits of Cuba, as well as to foreign countries, for the use of a special messenger service to correspondents in this line of trade.

This is the first decree issued by the new Government from which a source of revenue is to be created.

The Flight French Press.

PARIS, March 5.—The newspapers of this morning are silent about the Cuban question. The Figaro, for example, says: "The Spanish force in the field, before the end of March, will consist of 150,000 men, of whom 20,000 are with Spain, should his electors in Congress require it, he will resist the execution of Congress." The American statesmen will do the same. The Monroe doctrine. It is certain that Spain will not recede and it is difficult to see what benefit the United States will derive from war."

Minister Taylor expresses complete satisfaction with the attitude of the Government after all he has done.

The following is from The Times about the history of the Cuban war: "The Spanish force in the field, before the end of March, will consist of 150,000 men, of whom 20,000 are with Spain, should his electors in Congress require it, he will resist the execution of Congress." The American statesmen will do the same. The Monroe doctrine. It is certain that Spain will not recede and it is difficult to see what benefit the United States will derive from war."

Nevertheless, the Spanish

THE ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH
PUBLISHED DAILY
BY THE PULITZER PUBLISHING CO.
Founded by J. R. PULITZER

CHARLES H. JONES,
Editor and Manager.
Crescent City Press.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

By CARRIER, ST. LOUIS AND SUBURBS
Daily and Sunday—Per Week... 10 Cents
Daily and Sunday—Per Month... 10 Cents
By MAIL—In ADVANCE
Daily and Sunday—Per Month... 25 Cents
Daily and Sunday—Per Month... 50 Cents
Sunday—Per Annual... 50 Cents
Sunday—6 Months... $1.00

Daily and Sunday—carrier, in town outside of St. Louis 15 cents a week, 30 cents a month. Weekly 50 cents a week.
Mail or money order, draft, or registered letter, or money order, checks on New York, Boston, Philadelphia, or other large cities.

The price of the Post-Dispatch on all railroad trains and in all railroads' stations outside of St. Louis will be 10 CENTS per copy daily and 20 CENTS Sunday. Any one who is a member of the press, and that this will please report same to me, giving name of road or station and number of train.

Those persons who fail to receive their paper regularly will cause it to stop by reporting the same to this office.

Address all communications to POST-DISPATCH, St. Louis.

Entered at the Post-Office at St. Louis as second-class matter.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

Business Office..... 600
Editorial Room..... 600

THE C. Rockwell Special Agency.

Agency Foreign Advertising.

63 Broadway, New York.

And 400 The Stockley, Chicago.

A Spring Rise is on in the City... Circulation OF THE... Post-Dispatch

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE—Keller.

OLYMPIC—Fannie Davenport.

HAVLINS—"A Baggage Check."

STANDARD—New York Stars.

MATINEES TO-MORROW.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE—Keller.

A LOOK AHEAD.

Yesterday the Post-Dispatch gave a backward glance at the wreck and ruin which has already been brought upon the Democratic party under the leadership of the men whose views are embodied in the recent "Address to the Voters of Missouri."

If the party continues under their leadership a year longer, here is what we may look forward to.

A Republican President will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

The Populists-Bimetallists will outvote the Democratic party at the polls in November, and the Democratic party will thus be placed in the rear of the political procession.

The United States Senate will have a Republican majority so large as to make it easy to pass a Force Bill.

Connecticut and New Jersey will become as safely Republican as Massachusetts.

Maryland and Kentucky will fall into line in the Republican column.

Missouri will go Republican by 40,000 majority, and a legislature will be elected that will send Elly to the Senate in place of Vest.

Before two years are ended the national debt would be increased $500,000,000, in the shape of interest-bearing bonds, is expected to retire non-interest bearing greenbacks and Treasury notes.

Are the people of Missouri so easily caught by trap-rap rhetoric, that they can be persuaded to close their eyes to such results?

FOR A DEEPER CHANNEL.

The last objection to the proposed plan of deepening the Mississippi River between St. Louis and Vicksburg by dredge boats and portable jetties has been removed by the agreement of Messrs. Samuel and Mason, who submitted it, to ask a contract open to public competition.

Although the contract first sought by those who should be compensated unless the promised results were obtained, strong objection was made to the lack of competition. The amended bill will remedy this defect.

The Mississippi River Commissioners admit the feasibility of the plan and admit that no relief can be anticipated for many years from the regular work of the Commission.

But the need of prompt relief is pressing. The interests of the Mississippi Valley demand it. A feasible plan upon fair terms being offered, Congress should accept it without further parley. The suggestion of prominent citizens of St. Louis that mass meetings be held throughout the Mississippi Valley urging Congress to act in the matter ought to be carried out. Every town in the Valley should send a petition in favor of the adoption of the fourth district.

TWO OF A KIND.

The Southeast Missourian who asked the Post-Dispatch if the Republic and the Globe-Democrat are under the same management is not to be blamed for the inquiry.

There is more ground for uncertainty on this point than a mere similarity of business methods and an effort to hold each other up against the resistless tide of the Post-Dispatch's success.

Any one who has read the Globe-Democrat carefully for some time past must labor under the impression that its chief political object is to secure the nomination of Col. Wm. E. Morrison of Illinois for the Democratic party. It has carefully expended much ink in the effort to prove that Morrison is the only hope of the Democracy.

On the other hand, the McKinley boom has been the chief care of the Republic. It has missed no opportunity to push his claims to the Republican nomination.

We know of no newspaper whose influence is of more weight among the gold-bug Democrats than the Globe-Democrat, nor do we know of any newspaper that stands higher among the Republicans than the Republic. Both are working for plutocracy and have evidently entered into a combine to play both the Democratic and Republican parties for safety.

THE ADMINISTRATION PROGRAMME.

The sudden activity of the single gold standard men is Missouri is not a sporadic outbreak. It was inspired from Washington and is part of a well-devised programme about which there is no longer any concealment. It has been announced on the authority of a member of the Cabinet.

The Administration politicians have figured up a total of from 315 to 320 delegates to the Democratic National Convention from the State that are to choose solid gold standard delegations. These figures show that the Wall Street cause is lost so far as the Democratic party is concerned, if the States known to favor bimetallism follow the example of the gold standard States and send solid delegations to the National Convention.

The Administration programme, therefore, is to make sure of solid delegations from the gold standard States, and to break into the delegations from the free silver States, by securing in the latter a number of the District delegates.

One of the Administration mathematicians has figured out that in this way they can secure 12 District delegates in Indiana, 16 in Illinois, 6 in Missouri, 16 in Louisiana (owing to a fierce faction fight, which of course the Administration will foster), several in Texas, several in Alabama, nearly half the delegation from Georgia, and a number from Virginia. With these "District delegates" picked up from the free silver States and the solid delegations from the gold standard States, he figures out a majority of from 60 to 100 for the Administration in the Chicago convention.

The programme is an adroit one, and there can be no doubt that it will be carried out with the vigor of political desperadoes. It will be carried to the extent of bolting if necessary. No ploy for party defeat will arrest it. Mr. Cleveland is determined to use the whole power of his Administration to fasten the Wall Street policy on his party. If he cannot rule the party, he will endeavor to ruin it. His programme for accomplishing one or the other is that outlined above. Solid delegations from the gold standard States; divided delegations from the free silver States. Will Missouri help him in this game?

AFRAID OF JUSTICE.

A Berlin cable purporting to give European public opinion on the Spanish-American imbroglio says that European statesmen are astounded at the action of the United States and regard it as indicating that this country has wholly departed from her traditional policy of peace and non-interference in foreign affairs.

The United States is constantly charged with rashness and ignorance in discussing foreign affairs, but certainly neither the press nor the politicians of the United States have been guilty of such hysterical silliness as is embodied in the view cabled from Berlin.

The basis of all this astonishment over the alleged new departure of the United States are Congressional resolutions asking the President to recognize the belligerency of insurgent neighbors who have successfully maintained war against two different Captain-Generals and 125,000 Spanish soldiers, to offer his friendly protection to terminate the struggle and to protect American interests endangered by the conflict.

Now that there seems to be a prospect of making the Nicaragua Canal a monopoly, capital begins to prick up its ears.

Mr. McKinley flatters himself that he will have Blair Reed's tire punctured before the April showers begin to fall.

The compliments of the Columbian Fair are in danger of being forgotten in the present little gabfest with Spain.

Should the Spaniards capture New York and confiscate Pierpont Morgan's gold, the Treasury may yet be saved.

Should Foraker dare to be a Garfield, the patriots who will have McKinley's bills to pay will be pitiable objects.

Let us hope that it is not free silver that has reduced poor Mr. Astor's personal property to $250,000.

It is strange that Maj. Bittinger does not know that the Kentucky Colonel never says "sah."

Neither of the national conventions should nominate any man who has a wicked partner.

Why does John Sherman grow white when the honest white metal is mentioned?

Stoning the American flag may make a rocky road for the Spaniards.

Spain has a hateful history. It has long been time for her to mend.

It looks as if Allison had sent a critter company into Texas.

Perfectly Satisfactory.

From the Cassville (Mo.) Democrat.

The administration forces in Missouri under the leadership of David R. Francis have determined to make an open fight for the control of the State delegation at the national convention. That is perfectly satisfactory. The fight will, of course, result in a solid silver delegation. That, too, will be perfectly satisfactory. Any other representation of Missouri's attitude toward the silver question would be a misrepresentation.

For His Family's Sake.

From the Marshall (Mo.) Democrat-News.

The Democrats of Arrow Rock Township, and they are numerous and high grade, boast that in all their number they have only one gold bug, and out of pure chivalry and regard for his family they withhold his name.

The District Monarchs.

From the Pittsburg (Mo.) Leader.

The St. Louis Republic is hoping about the attempt of the silver Democrats to "disfranchise a district" when they contend that the convention must elect the delegates to the National Convention. When did a district ever get a franchise? Who ever granted such an arraignment to a district, or any other subdivision of a State?

'Tis real.

thoroughly enjoyed by him. The enormous demand for the Sunday Post-Dispatch is as natural as any other effect of an adequate cause.

It is to be hoped that in the breaking up of the Hudson and the flood accompanying it, Gov. Morton's chickens have not been lost. In a costly contest such as that in which the Governor is engaged every marketable egg laid counts.

Speaking of dog shows an able-bodied St. Bernard tearing up the front yard grass is quite an exciting scene to the owner of the turf. The terraced, unfenced lawns are especially inviting to St. Bernard, Bernard and various other breeds.

It is only a year since a Spanish vessel fired upon the American flag, and the United States and Spain have not been lost in admiration of each other at any time since that presumption error.

In his scheme to make himself the rich man in the world Pierpont Morgan doesn't stop to consider how many poor men will have to contribute to the gratification of this senseless ambition.

Missouri does not propose to send delegates to the Democratic National Convention to represent New York, Pennsylvania, or Massachusetts. Missouri delegates must represent Missouri.

Spring business for the Pasteur Institute begins well. With fourteen persons right at home demanding its attention in one day, its affairs certainly appear flourishing.

Americans are everywhere taking a hand in affairs. They are in the Transvaal, in Cuba, in Madagascar, and now they have trained the guns on Momotombo.

Wall street has certainly been milking for a long time the cow the farmer feeds. The worst of it is that the farmer has often voted to keep up that sort of thing.

Calling the great majority of the Missouri Democrats "the radical silver element" cannot lessen their overwhelming numbers by so much as one man.

The cigarette market is reported to be better than it ever was before. It looks as if there are those who love the cigarette that will affect it.

Probably few phantoms have a better right to return and make a protest than Fitzgerald, but he probably did not mean to give the medium a sore throat.

When the mob stoned that American flag in Spain they had doubtless learned that Capt. Roemer of Missouri had already reached Cuba.

In the streets of Havana there are Spanish cries of "Death to Uncle Sam!" Uncle Sam, however, is likely to live for some years to come.

Cheap river transportation for the Mississippi Valley is absolutely necessary. A healthful stimulant will greatly increase our commerce.

A vote cast to save the public schools from political corruption is a good deed. It will brighten the life of the voter.

The reporters say that heroes still walk the earth. Doubtless they do, but such as them as use the streets get very muddy.

Now that there seems to be a prospect of making the Nicaragua Canal a monopoly, capital begins to prick up its ears.

Mr. McKinley flatters himself that he will have Blair Reed's tire punctured before the April showers begin to fall.

The compliments of the Columbian Fair are in danger of being forgotten in the present little gabfest with Spain.

Should the Spaniards capture New York and confiscate Pierpont Morgan's gold, the Treasury may yet be saved.

Now that there seems to be a prospect of making the Nicaragua Canal a monopoly, capital begins to prick up its ears.

Let us hope that it is not free silver that has reduced poor Mr. Astor's personal property to $250,000.

It is strange that Maj. Bittinger does not know that the Kentucky Colonel never says "sah."

Neither of the national conventions should nominate any man who has a wicked partner.

Why does John Sherman grow white when the honest white metal is mentioned?

Stoning the American flag may make a rocky road for the Spaniards.

Spain has a hateful history. It has long been time for her to mend.

It looks as if Allison had sent a critter company into Texas.

Perfectly Satisfactory.

From the Cassville (Mo.) Democrat.

The administration forces in Missouri under the leadership of David R. Francis have determined to make an open fight for the control of the State delegation at the national convention. That is perfectly satisfactory. The fight will, of course, result in a solid silver delegation. That, too, will be perfectly satisfactory. Any other representation of Missouri's attitude toward the silver question would be a misrepresentation.

For His Family's Sake.

From the Marshall (Mo.) Democrat-News.

The Democrats of Arrow Rock Township, and they are numerous and high grade, boast that in all their number they have only one gold bug, and out of pure chivalry and regard for his family they withhold his name.

The District Monarchs.

From the Pittsburg (Mo.) Leader.

The St. Louis Republic is hoping about the attempt of the silver Democrats to "disfranchise a district" when they contend that the convention must elect the delegates to the National Convention. When did a district ever get a franchise? Who ever granted such an arraignment to a district, or any other subdivision of a State?

'Tis real.

Pale autumn moves with gentle tread.

And quiet air, amid the dead.

March whips the autumn sky to wear.

And lo! the violet appears.

CHARLES EUGENE BARKER

WELL-KNOWN ST. LOUISIANA.

George W. Flersheim.

George W. Flersheim was born in Buffalo, N. Y., in 1851. He received his education in the public schools of Buffalo. At the age of 16 he went to Chicago, reaching there the year prior to the fire of 1871. In 1872 he found employment with the Western News Co. He began at the bottom and by his intelligent and persistent efforts attained the position of buyer. In 1880 he came to St. Louis and was made manager of the Mercantile Club.

MEN OF MARK.

James H. Brown, a clerk at the Fort

FOUR BICYCLE MARKS BROKEN.

Hamilton Rides a Mile in 1:39 1-5 and Two-Thirds in :58 3-5.

UNPLACED ONE-THIRD 33 3-5.

Taylor and Terrill Covered a Half on a Tandem in 52 3-5—Local Sporting News and Gossip.

CORONADO BEACH, Cal., March 1.—Four world's records were broken here. W. H. Hamilton, paced by Taylor, Aldridge, Miller and Vaughn on a quad, and Stone, Terrill, Washburn, Jenks and Conner on a quintet, cut the world record for one-mile flying for the last year a slight breeze arose shortly after the ride for the mile. Hamilton then went out, passed by the same two teams, for Berlin's record of 53 1-5. Hamilton rode the distance in 52 3-5. After resting about twenty minutes he went again for the record and made it in 51 3-5, making a total distance of 50 3-5 miles. The former record was 51 1-5. Taylor and Terrill then went out for the half-mile tandem record and made it in 26 3-5. The former record was 26 1-5. The trials were timed, judged and started by L. A. W. officials.

RYAN KNOCKED OUT.

"Kid" McCoy Finished Him Decisively in Fifteen Fierce Rounds.

TOMMY Ryan, erstwhile of Chicago, and protege of "Parson" Davies, but now a resident of Syracuse, N. Y., met with the most decisive defeat of his career last night in the ring at the Empire City Auditorium. Mephisto, L. L., the hands of Charley ("Kid") McCoy, lately a resident of Memphis, Tenn., now claiming Aurora, Ill., has his hands full. The meet was a swatty round at 65 pounds, with Tom Hurst, the well-known base ball umpire as referee. Ryan was the favorite in the betting and the odds were 10 to 1. The card showed that McCoy immediately proceeded to make when time was called, the odds changed front rapidly.

A few moments out of the ring shows that Ryan was outfoxed from start to finish. His blows lacked steam, and when the fight was over McCoy was without a scratch. Ryan, however, realized that he had bitten off more than he could chew, early in the fight and tried sprinting tactics during the remaining rounds. He was in the lead the greater part of the time, in fact, he enjoyed his try across the pond immensely.

East St. Louis and entered his Great Dane, Nero. Miss Ruth Starch of Webster Place has entered her white French poodle and Miss Edna Bezzant of Westminster place also entered a white French poodle.

JIM CORBETT'S WHALE.
New York Tax Commissioners Assess Him $10,000 on Personal Property.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 3.—The Tax Commissioners have been holding sessions recently of the kind that Jim Corbett, the artist, that they determined to assess him $10,000 on his personal property. Mr. Corbett was notified of the commissioners' written affidavit to the effect that owing to his theatrical engagements he could not be in New York before April 30, the time when the tax bill was due and taxes expiring. Mr. Corbett's affidavit will not avail him, and if he does not put in a personal appearance and swear on the taxes he will be compelled to pay it.

CONFERENCE AT CINCINNATI.

Secretary Aull Will Represent St. Louis at an Important Meeting.

Secretary Robert Aull of the Fair Association will go to Cincinnati last night to confer with the Board of Directors and Newport track managers regarding the adjustment of the Western state dates. The dates for three of the local fixtures have been settled by the members.

The other events, however, will be run off so as to not conflict with the dates of the local fixtures. Most of the big Western stables have entered officially for the St. Louis and Cincinnati meets and the idea is to make the dates coincide, if possible, at both postdates. This will be possible, if an understanding is reached which gives the 2-year-olds the date of the St. Louis and Cincinnati meets, and when the latter are at St. Louis the 2-year-old events will be run off on the same date.

Secretary Aull expects to finish his business at Cincinnati in time to be back on duty again Wednesday.

A year-old National Derby is yet to be decided. The intention is to have it decided during the Republican Convention, if a date immediately after the race can be set.

The possibility of it being delayed is something to be considered.

Consultation and advice free. A special department for ladies with strict privacy. Write us if you can't come to see us. We'll answer promptly. Fees low.

DON'T LET CONSUMPTION Get You Into Its Power!

You should be so unfortunate as to be suffering from consumption, either in its incipiency or a well defined stage.

On Sale 9 to 10 a. m.

WAISTS—Lady's special lot of very neat fabric mixtures—made with large sleeves and valentines—each $1.00 each during above hour.

40c

TABLE CLOTHS—quarter

White Damask—each $1.00

each $1.00 each during above hour.

THREAD (200 yard) 50c

Thick full standard quality, all colors. Not good 40 thread—during above hour.

1c

PRINTS—American Indigo Blue

lengths of 2 to 10 yards, during above hour, in basement, per yard.

32c

TISSUE—"Beaver" machine

bleached (200 yard) 50c

Thread full standard quality, all colors. Not good 40 thread—during above hour.

1c

KID GLOVES—4

Button Kid Gloves in Tan and Brown, 4 sizes of stitching—in all sizes—quality rarely found under $2.00

50c

HOSEY—Children's 4

Hose, sizes 6 to 12, regular each $1.00 each during above hour.

8c

TOWELS—Heavy Bleached

Huck Towels, size 13x24, regular, each $1.00 each during above hour.

8c

WAFFLE IRONS—Nos

white iron 7 and 8

regularly $2.00 each

19c

Aseptolin

Miss St. Louis, who have several patients under treatment, each of whom is vastly improved under the treatment of Dr. W. H. Weller, son of the Collector of Taxes of the State of Missouri, who has introduced Dr. Eason's New Consumption Remedy.

see at once the aid of the skilled physicians at the New Academy, who have introduced Dr. Eason's New Consumption Remedy.

Cast Physics to the Dogs and seek at once the aid of the skilled physicians at the New Academy, who have introduced Dr. Eason's New Consumption Remedy.

Constituted by the Western state dates.

The dates for three of the local fixtures have been settled by the members.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

The other events, however, will be run off on the same date.

MONEY NEEDED FOR A GOOD WORK.

Contributions Necessary to Complete the Y. M. C. A. Building.

GET READY TO CHIP IN.

Committees Appointed to Visit Citizens and Ask Aid for a Noble Enterprise.

A supreme effort will be made to raise sufficient money within the next two weeks to complete the handsome new Y. M. C. A. building at Grand and Franklin avenues.

Already $150,000 has been expended on this magnificent structure aside from the site, but $75,000 more will have to be secured before the building can be completed and equipped. The building committee has sufficient funds on hand now for sixty days' work. When that is exhausted, however, the work of raising more money must be provided. The ground on which the building is erected was given with the provision that the association should never permit a mortgage to be placed upon it, and because of this the committee will not permit any work to be provided before it is expended.

Mr. Thomas S. McPhee, President of the local Y. M. C. A., and chairman of the Building Committee, told the Post-Dispatch reporter Monday that he believed the money for the completion of the building would be supplied at once by the members of the association. The enterprise is one which all classes are interested in seeing carried to a successful issue, and he believes there will be no difficulty in securing the requests for aid. These requests will be made only to men who can give large sums. Members of the Y. M. C. A. are the leaders and solid subscribers of St. Louis and upward. Nine of the directors of the association have been named as three committees, and in the past two weeks they have promised to devote two hours each day to the work of soliciting funds to complete the work.

The committee consists of Messrs. Walker Hill, James H. Allen, George W. Brown, B. Nugent E. P. V. Ritter, F. B. Broadwell, S. P. Sprague, H. C. Ladd, and Mr. McPhee.

They will call on the down town business men who are able to make liberal donations, and Mr. McPhee says he has no doubt of their success.

The building proper is practically completed and the money yet to be raised will be spent for equipping it. It is desired to have a large hall, a gymnasium, a swimming pool, a billiard room, a large gymnasium, a lecture room, a parlor room, a library room and the educational departments. All these must be supplied before the building will be ready for occupancy, and it will require the amount needed to supply it.

"When this is done," said Mr. McPhee, "St. Louis will have another institution of which the public may be proud. It will reflect credit upon the generosity of the city, but will be of vast benefit to it."

The valuable work, however, done by the Y. M. C. A. is so well known and recognized that it is needless to mention it. The place where we get our news, our knowledge, the features that have marked the success of the Y. M. C. A. will be dropped, but many new ones added. It is our purpose to provide a place where young men can meet and associate constantly and profitably. With the gymnasium, swimming pool and bowling alley, in addition to the lectures, concerts, entertainments, plays, legitimate and enjoyable entertainment will be provided.

"Another new feature which will be introduced is a school of engineering. Accommodations for 700 will be provided and the young men will be given instruction by competent teachers in whatever industrial branch they desire. The educational department will be divided in two classes.

One will be to prepare young men for commercial pursuits, bookkeeping, general business and the like, and will be taught. The other class will be for mechanics and artisans. Instructors will be provided to explain and teach the various arts. Free hand drawing which is the basis for all such studies, will also be taught. Later on classes in bookbinding, carriages, carpentry, modeling and various other trades will be formed.

"The plan is in operation a canvass among the manufacturing plants of the city will be made. The foremen and heads of the establishments will be asked if with particular care and attention directed to the men the men can be instructed so as to earn more money. Then it will be the object of the institution to assist the employes to the best advantage.

The advantages offered by the Y. M. C. A. will be within the reach of every young man of the city. The membership fee is $10 per year, admission to all its meetings. Thus when a mechanic wishes to improve himself in his calling, he is entitled to free admission to the gymnasium, swimming alley, swimming pool and to free admission to all the lectures and entertainments. It is really a great service to the men.

That need is charged in order the the members may all be on the same footing and that no one need feel bad about the object of the organization. The local branch is now about 200, but when we get in the new building it will reach 1,200 in a very few months.

"This is a great work before the Y. M. C. A. and I am confident the citizens of St. Louis will see to it that the required amount of money will be forthcoming when they are called upon."

THIS FENDER A FAILURE.

Four-Year-Old Freda Eyermann Fatally Hurt by a Southwestern Car.

The tender in use on the Southwestern car line proved itself a failure Monday afternoon and in consequence a 4-year-old Freda Eyermann is lying at the point of death at her home, 287 South Broadway.

Freda was hit by her mother to a neighbor's on an errand, and on her return she went running across Seven street without noticing the big street car which was coming north at a rapid rate. She stepped on the track almost in front of the car and so suddenly that the mother did not even notice it.

The little girl, straight from bed, had run and knocked her down, and then showed her along until finally she got to one side. After this she ran home and hurried her into the office of Dr. D. P. Morrissey at 21 South Seventh street, where it was found that she was suffering from a compound fracture of the leg, and was sent home to her home, where her death is hourly expected.

Dr. H. Henrichsen of 209 South Broadway, who is attending her, says that she is not the one chance in a hundred for her recovery.

The mother of the car was Peter Thurman of 323 South Ninth street. No arrests were made.

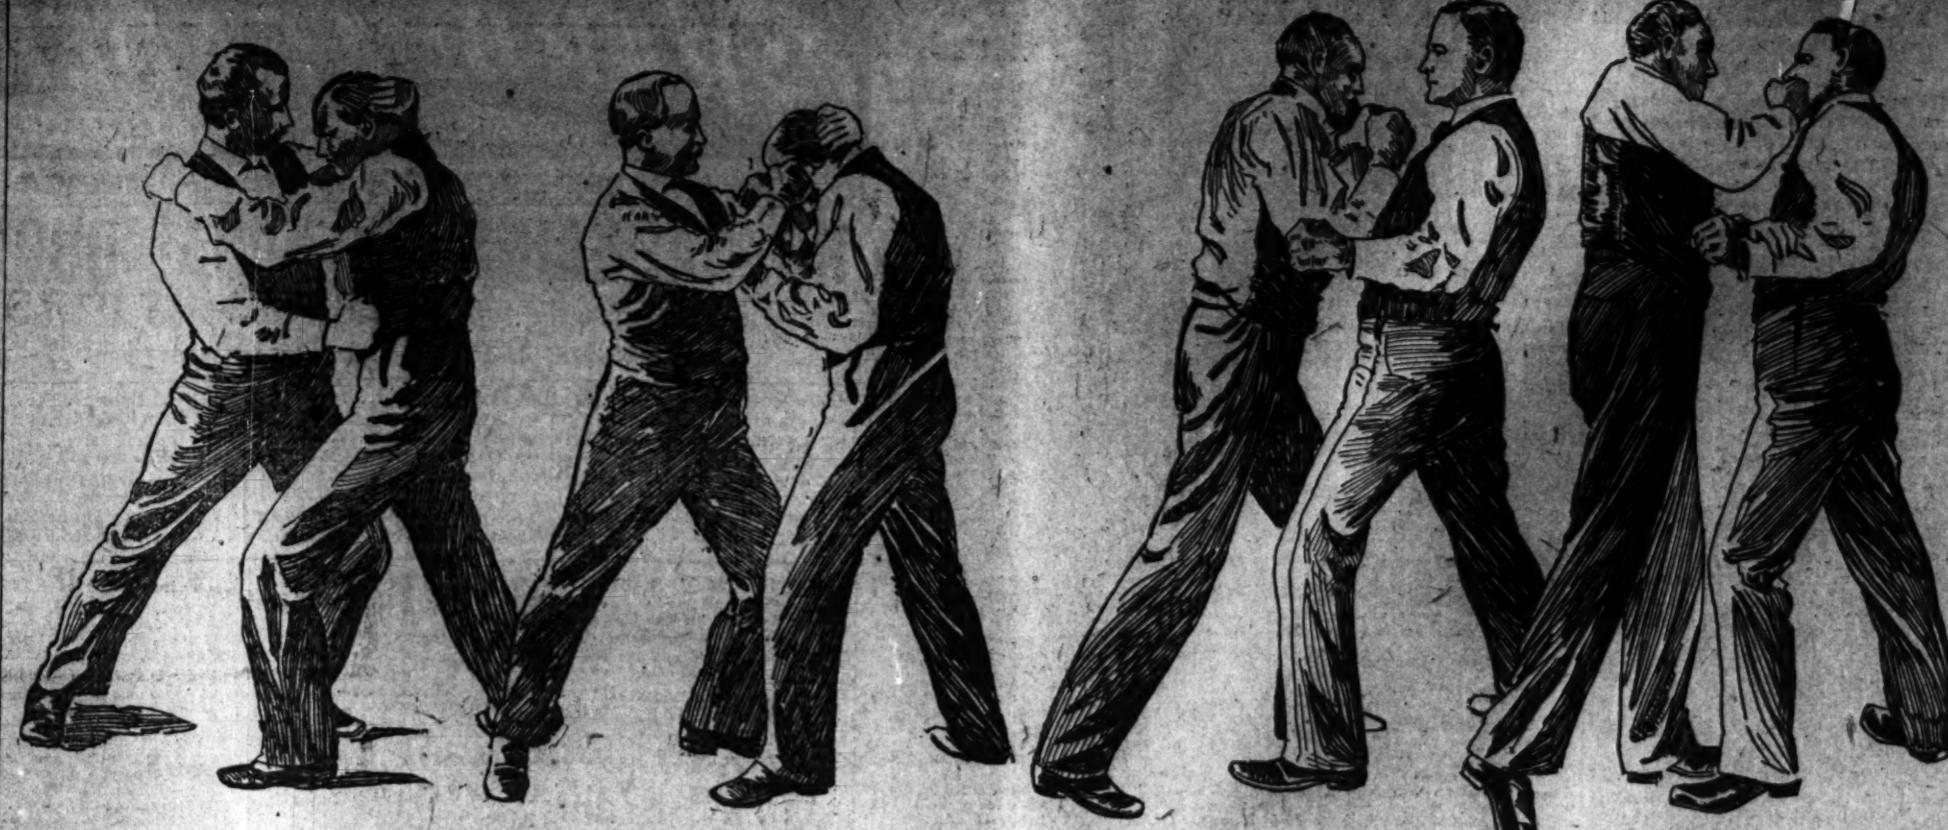

THIS FENDER A SUCCESS.

Saved Little Mary Calhoun From a Terrible Death.

Little 8-year-old Mary Calhoun, living at 204 Geyer avenue, had a narrow escape from death while going to school Tuesday morning.

At the intersection of California and Lafayette avenues Mary started to cross the street. Car No. 21 of the Citizens' Railway was coming rapidly along. Before the grimmam could stop up the track, however, Freda was picked up by the fender and carried a distance of ten feet. Mary alighted after her morning ride, unharmed, and then trudged merrily to school.

HOW FITZSIMMONS WHIPPED MAHER (DESCRIBED BY THE WINNER.)

FIRST PICTURE—I fiddled for a time; found he was nervous, let go with my left; missed, and we came to a clinch. With his left arm back of my neck, he punched away at my body. It hurt, too.

SECOND PICTURE—This shows the several foul blows where he struck me near the ear during a clinch. It was a pretty stiff punch, too.

THIRD PICTURE—Shows just the way in which the knockout blow above Maher was punching away at my body. Then he drew back to swing his right to the jaw. As he did I blocked the right and started to send in a short right-hand upper cut. It was a great jolt.

FOURTH PICTURE—This shows the jolt landed. I did not have more than eight inches to work on, but the punch put Peter almost to sleep for a time. It was not hard enough to knock him insensible.

DAYLIGHT BURGLARS CAUGHT.

Two Notorious Offenders Run In, by Detectives.

Detectives Gulin and Matton Monday succeeded in arresting two daylight burglars, who have been successfully operating in the southern part of the city for a month or more. The men arrested are Charles, alias "Kid" Beard and John Julian. They confess their guilt. On Feb. 23 the residence of R. C. Bullock, 2501 Salena street, was entered and about $100 taken. On the same day at Chas. Lehman's residence, 2207 Arch street, $200 worth of silverware and jewelry was stolen. Other houses robbed were the residence of Mr. Schmitz, 1604 South Twelfth street; A. B. Schulz, 1141 Rutgers street, and Charles, alias "Kid" Beard, 2110 Franklin avenue. The thefts occurred in the day time when the occupants were absent.

Detectives Gulin and Matton were determined to catch the two men who were willing to invest no care to have their identity revealed until the preliminary hearing.

The Police plan is for a building that will accommodate at least 100 families.

"I have made a careful study," said Mr. P. T. Farnum, "of all the great apartments in New York and Chicago and if I succeed in carrying out my idea as I expect to I will have them all one better. I have been working hard now endeavoring to get money, men interested and I think have had a half dozen skeleton keys.

PRESIDENT JULIUS WALSH.

Terminal Railroad Association Elects Officers and Hears Reports.

Julius Walsh was elected President of the Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis at a meeting held at the Union Station Tuesday. This action was supplemented by the election of E. P. Bryan as Vice-President.

In addition to the duties of his new office

LUXURIOUS APARTMENTHOUSE

Unique Features of a Building Projected for St. Louis.

If everything goes smoothly St. Louis will probably have within the next year a family apartment house that will outrival in every respect anything of the kind in the world.

The man who is figuring on the proposition now and who is confident that he will carry it through is Daniel Peter, a well-known architect, who came here recently from San Francisco. Mr. Folk has had the idea in his mind for a couple of years and has been making a number of surveys and plans.

Other buildings of this nature that have marked the success of the Y. M. C. A. will be dropped, but many new ones added.

"When this is done," said Mr. McPhee, "St. Louis will have another institution of which the public may be proud. It will reflect credit upon the generosity of the city, but will be of vast benefit to it."

The building proper is practically completed and the money yet to be raised will be spent for equipping it. It is desired to have a large hall, a gymnasium, a swimming pool, a billiard room, a large gymnasium, a lecture room, a parlor room and the educational departments. All these must be supplied before the building will be ready for occupancy, and it will require the amount needed to supply it.

"This is a great work before the Y. M. C. A. and I am confident the citizens of St. Louis will see to it that the required amount of money will be forthcoming when they are called upon."

RYAN'S APPEAL

A Police Sergeant Who Called on His Men in an Emergency.

Sgt. Jim Dawson of the Central Police District, tells a good story on Sgt. Mike Ryan, who was retired on pension by the Police Board last fall.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

"There was a time," says Ryan, "when we need not name" when every policeman in St. Louis stood in mortal terror of the Police Board. The slightest mention of the name was sufficient to shatter even the nerves of Eddie Fox, the giant copper, whose form is the admiration of the ladies along Olive street.

OUR CANINE PETS AGAIN DEFENDED.

Prof. Eberhart Denies That Hydrophobia Comes From Dogs.

EFFECT OF IMAGINATION:

Instances Given of the Effect of a Panic Where There Was Really No Danger.

The letter of Prof. A. G. Eberhart, Superintendent of the St. Louis branch school, which was printed in the Sunday Post-Dispatch, in which Prof. Eberhart made the assertion that he had never seen a genuine case of hydrophobia, and that he believed that cases that resulted in what was diagnosed as rabies from the effects of dog bites were the result of imagination, has created much talk, and considerable comment.

Prof. Eberhart was called upon Saturday by a Post-Dispatch reporter, and asked if he could make his position as a disbeliever in the existence of the disease plainer than those reasons given in the short letter in last Sunday's Post-Dispatch.

"Yes," said the Professor. "I believe that I can. When I said that I had never seen a genuine case of hydrophobia, I meant it. I have seen many dogs that were thought to be mad, but have never yet seen one that I was thoroughly satisfied was affected with the disease. I have seen the lives of dogs suspected of being thus affected, we might in time have an understanding of the subject by studying the signs of rabies, and the signs of hydrophobia. I have seen a dog when he showed signs of anything wrong is to immediately consider it to be mad, and after that it is a very safe bet until its death that it will die of a bullet through the head, and the most valuable evidence in the case is destroyed."

Ramsey vs. Otis: reversed and remanded with directions.

Alvin W. Masta, respondent, vs. the People's Street Railway et al., appellants. Buchanan County, appeal from a judgment for personal injuries, reversed and remanded.

State ex rel. G. D. Needen, Pottawatomie County, respondent, vs. the People's Street Railway et al., appellants. Judgment for personal assault; reversed and remanded.

State vs. Wm. Natta, respondent, vs. the People's Street Railway et al., appellants. Buchanan County, appeal from a judgment for personal injuries, reversed and remanded.

John J. Mulligan, respondent, vs. the State of Missouri, defendant. Motion to remand.

H. E. Mohlenhoff et al. vs. St. Louis County, respondent, vs. the State of Missouri, defendant. Motion to remand.

Dominick Dowd vs. Westinghouse Air Brake Company: damages for personal injuries, affirmed.

F. J. Hollenbeck, respondent, vs. Missouri Pacific Railway, defendant: damages for personal injuries, affirmed.

E. J. McMahon, respondent, vs. The Pacific Express Company, appellant: damages for personal injuries; reversed and remanded.

Cole vs. City of St. Louis: affirmed.

Ramsey vs. Otis: reversed and remanded with directions.

Sullivan vs. Jefferson Avenue Railway Co.: affirmed.

State vs. Cox: leave granted to appeal for a poor person. State vs. Norman: appeal bond approved. State vs. Punshon: reversing denied.

Court has handed down opinions in the following cases:

J. W. McCollum, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

Wm. H. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Agnes Fuchs, respondent, vs. City of St. Louis: respondent: the finding in favor of the plaintiff was affirmed.

McCan and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions in the following cases:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order overruling motion for re-hearing overruled. Harwood vs. Tamm: affirmed.

Division No 2 handed down opinions as follows:

Wm. H. Parsons, respondent, vs. Callahan, appellant: opinion for motion for rehearing; motion denied; reversed and remanded.

W. E. Parsons et al., respondents, vs. Knox County, respondent, vs. the Insurance Company for Mutual Automobile Insurers: judgment reversed and remanded.

Motions-Gay: Mayoral motion to stay execution of the bill of bond sustained.

McCann and Smoyer vs. Eddy et al.: motion to vacate order

EMPLOYMENT GROUPING.

Two Persons Die Every Second

So statistics tell us.

If You Will Take Good Care of Yourself Read P.-D. Wants

And Advertise in them. You will live long and prosper.

LITTLE PRICES—BIG RETURNS

Any Drug Store in St. Louis Is Authorized to Receive Advertisements and Subscriptions for the Post-Dispatch.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

ANY drug store is authorized to receive want advertisements for the Post-Dispatch. Three lines (20 words), 6 cents; each additional line, 5 cents.

BOY—Wanted position by a drug store; good about work; references; address Add. 625 N. 4th st.

BOY—Boy of 17 would like situation in grocery or light store work and drive. Call after 6 o'clock 1100 Chouteau av.

BOY—Colored, world like to have a situation as porter with some private family; can give ref. 2200 Wash st.

BOY—Good boy, 19, wants work; can milk and drive car; good references; add. 1100 Chouteau av.; mostly everything. Add. 1100 Chouteau av.

BLACKSMITH—Position as blacksmith and wagon-maker; all around man; 10 years' experience; good references. Add. 500 Main st. A. J. Brown.

BOOKKEEPER—Position as bookkeeper, cashier or office man; long experience; very best of references; also bond; quick and accurate. Add. P. D. this office.

BOY—Wanted situation by boy of 17, willing to do to pay our graders for the best dev't position. Address R. 92, this office.

BAKER—Wanted, situation by first-class bread and cake baker (single); will work very reasonable; prefer country job. Address Roberts, 810 S. 8d. st.

COLLECTOR—Situation as collector or salesman; can give ref. of references. Add. R. 92, this office.

CARPENTER—Wants work; will work for reasons; he charges it straight. Add. H. 98, this office.

CANDYMAKER—Wanted, position as candy maker by experienced man on plants, taffies and candies; small wages to begin. Add. R. 98, this office.

COOK—Situation by man and wife as cooks in restaurant or hotel or private place; good refs. Call or address 2113 N. 12th st.

CLERK—Hotel night clerk or watchman by a young man with good references and experience. Add. N. 98, this office.

CLERK—Grocery clerk by a young man (German) with experience and willing to work for low wages. Add. O. 98, this office.

CARPENTER—First-class carpenter wants job; will work for $1.50 a day; good at repairing furniture. Add. Carpenter, 3006 N. 12th st.

ENGINEER—Licensed engineer and electrician wants position; kind; all references. Add. P. D. this office.

FLORIST—Wanted, situation by practical florist (German); married. Address D. 91, this office.

MAN—Situation of any kind by man of 30; sober and willing to work cheap. Add. S. 98, this office.

MAN—Wanted, an older boy who'd like situation to do general work. Apply to Martin Bray, 306 N. 16th st., up-stairs.

MAN—Wanted, position by young man; understands stationery and grocery business; good at figure drawing; start at small salary. Add. T. 98, this office.

MAN—Situation by competent white man, honest, sober, industrious, to attend horses, cows, lawn, garden, furnace, etc.; best city ref. Add. 94, this office.

MAN—Situation by young man, 23 years of age; sober, honest and industrious; references; must have work. Add. G. 98, this office.

MAN—Wanted, situation by young man, 20, under-stands stationery and grocery business; good at figure drawing; start at small salary. Add. T. 98, this office.

MAN—A young man, sober, honest; industries; good education and of good family; wants work; best of ref. Add. F. 94, this office.

MAN—Situation by young man, 23 years of age; sober, honest and industrious; references; must have work. Add. G. 98, this office.

MAN—Wanted, situation by young man, 20, under-stands stationery and grocery business; good at figure drawing; start at small salary. Add. T. 98, this office.

MAN—Situation by competent white man, honest, sober, industrious, to attend horses, cows, lawn, garden, furnace, etc.; best city ref. Add. 94, this office.

MAN—A sober and industrious young man wants work; good food or do work; wants to feed children; handy or to assist with housework; need of music. Call after noon, 1121 Armstrong.

HOUSEKEEPER—Good, practical housekeeper; good cook, wishes position with widower's or bachelor's household; good character; references. Address M. 92, this office.

LAUNDRESS—First-class laundress wants position; can give good references. 2210 Franklin av.

LAUNDRESS—Wanted, small family washing to take home. Add. R. 98, N. Leonard st.

LAUNDRESS—A competent German woman wants washing and ironing to do by the week. Add. M. 92, this office.

LAUNDRESS—Wanted, situation by young girl—1 cook, 3 nurses, 1 nurse for general work. Add. 2 days, 606 Hickory st.

GIRL—Situation wanted by a young German girl in family of 2; light housework, plain cooking; good references. Apply 3725 Locy st., no postals allowed.

HOUSEKEEPER—Situation in dining-room and work on new work at Case's factory, 416 Lucas av.

LAUNDRESS—Wanted, a lady wishes a situation as housekeeper for a widow. Add. W. 92, this office.

HOUSEWORK—Wanted, situation to do house-work. 1719 Franklin av.

HOUSEKEEPER—Situation wanted by colored girl to do first-class house work; city ref. Call or address 2834 Olive st.

HOUSEKEEPER—Wanted, situation as housekeeper in small family. 821 N. 16th st. Add. 3d floor.

LAUNDRESS—Wanted, situation as housekeeper for a widow; 3 nurses; to do work; good food or do work; good character; references. Call after 11 A.M. 1127 N. 16th st.

LAUNDRESS—Wanted, situation by young married man; acquainted with all the work in wholesale wine and liquor business; best of references. Address X. 91, this office.

PHARMACIST—Competent, young pharmacist; regular in several States; will accept position with ref. Address D. 25, this office.

SEWING MACHINE ADJUSTER—Sewing machine adjuster and machine wants steady part-time or full-time position; save parts; guaranteed work. 2012 Sheridan av.

APPRENTICES WANTED—To learn barber trade; job furnished; graduates after 8 weeks' practice; catalogue. St. Louis Barber College, 819 N. 9th st.

BOY—WANTED—Boy to work in kitchen. 3421 Lucas av.

BARBER WANTED—1304 N. 9th st.

BOY—WANTED—About 12 years old, for office and to run errands. Russell Engineering Co., n. e. cor. 4th and Pine st.

BARBER WANTED—Good barber. 2705 Lafayette. Call after 6 p.m.

CUTTER WANTED—Experienced cutter of ladies' shirt waists. A. Cohn & Co., 710 Main av.

SETTER WANTED—A settee familiar with white leather; little experience; handling men; $1,000 required; a good faith and present amount of cash; a guarantee of good faith and payment of $100 per month; $100 per month or profits for first year, and $100 per month or same profits, second year. Add. Lock Box 68, Joy-land, Mo.

LAUNDRIES—Wanted, on 8th st., bat. Clark av. and Walnut st. Joe's O'Shea.

LIVE active party with $3,000 cash double it each year; have entire charge of business and cash; no risk. Add. G. 98, this office.

MAN WANTED—Man to work around the house; good home; ref. 325 N. Spring av.

PORTER WANTED—Colored porter; bring references. E. Newman & Co., 2708 Franklin av.

SALESMEN WANTED—Traveling salesmen to sell to dealers; $100 monthly and expenses ex. un-necessary; inclose stamp. Acme Cigar Co., Chicago.

Perkins & Herpels MERCANTILE COLLEGE

Crescent Street and Washington Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

INDIVIDUAL INSTRUCTION

Send to Perkins & Herpels, 2708 Franklin av., St. Louis, Mo.

DAY OR NIGHT SCHOOL NOW OPEN.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

GIRL WANTED—A young girl or widow can find a steady, good home in small family, in return for light work. 207 Ware av.

GIRL WANTED—Dining-room girl and chamber-maid. 3416 Washington av.

GIRL WANTED—Girl to cook, wash and iron. 3708 Westmont pl.

GIRL WANTED—German girl between 8 and 10 years old; company to be paid for board, clothes, laundry, etc. Call at 4125 N. 2d st.

GIRL WANTED—Girl to mind children and help with housework. 510 Ridge st.

GIRL WANTED—Entered apprenticeship to learn dressmaking; will pay car fare while learning. 302 N. 15th st.

HOUSEKEEPER WANTED—A maid for general house-work in small family. 3026 Chestnut av.

HOUSEKEEPER WANTED—A girl for general house-work in a family. 3018 Chestnut st.

HOUSEKEEPER WANTED—Girl for general house-work; nice room; complete furnished for light housekeeping; cedar closet, bath conveniences; first-class house and block; reasonable rent.

COLUMBIAN HOTEL, S. W. Cor. 8th and Chestnut sts.—Nice rooms for gentlemen; $1.00 per week and up; transients $0.50 and $1 per week.

SWING AV., 10th st., between Chestnut and Locust—Two unfurnished rooms $7, a month; reference re-

RASTON AV., 2006—Newly furnished front or back parlor, with bath; girls or married couples.

GARRISON AV., 412 S.—Three rooms.

GRAYSON AV., 216—One unfurnished room for old lady on north side.

CHAMBERS AV., 3216—Nicely furnished room; private family.

COMPTON AV., 1001—Nicely furnished front room and kitchen complete for housekeeping, with bath; $12 per month; private family.

CHANNING AV., 2044—A furnished front room; good location for dressmaker.

CARL AV., 2006—Furnished room; completely furnished for light housekeeping; cedar closet, bath conveniences; first-class house and block; reasonable rent.

EASTON AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

BOSTON AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

HARVEY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MURRAY AV., 2006—Furnished front room; complete furnished room; good location for dressmaker.

MEXICAN FRIENDS OF ST. LOUIS

Prospective Visit of President Diaz and a Notable Delegation.

One of the most important movements yet made toward bringing about a closer commercial and social relationship between the city of St. Louis and the Republic of Mexico is about to be put under way. The plan contemplates the bringing to St. Louis of 100 of the most prominent citizens and among them President Diaz.

W. J. Kinsella, who returned from an extended tour of Mexico, made in company with his wife and daughter and several St. Louis gentlemen, in the City of Mexico met Hon. W. H. Davis, prominent Commissioner and a brother of J. C. Darst, a real estate man of St. Louis. Mr. Darst, who is the general representative here of St. Louis' mercantile concerns, broached a plan to Mr. Kinsella, who is a member of the Business Men's League, which the latter became at once interested in.

The plan agreed upon as most feasible was for a local committee bodies to combine in a general invitation to President Diaz, his staff and 100 of the most prominent Mexican business men, to visit St. Louis for fifteen days beginning June 10. That is to say, Mr. Darst, who is a member of the Merchants' Exchange, Cupples Station, the two bridges, the breweries and other prominent business and social entertainment at several of the clubs.

In his communication, which is semi-official, Mr. Diaz says "I do not all understand your proposal, but I am willing to join the party. In that case, arrangements should be made for his reception. It will be successful in getting him to make the tour if he can be received in St. Louis and would influence lots of Mexican trade. The feeling of Mexicans is favorable to St. Louis and your merchants should speedily make arrangements to be received from closer relations with this Republic. You have much to overcome before this trade can be established, but you can do it."

To a Post-Dispatch reporter, Mr. Kinsella said: "I am much impressed with the plan. While in the City of Mexico our party was treated very well by President Diaz, who expressed feelings of great friendliness toward the United States and toward St. Louis in particular. If the right effort is made, I think it will be an easy matter to bring this to the city and I shall bring the matter before the various commercial bodies of the city at once with a view to immediate action."

FINE SPRING WOOLENS

Direct from the best foreign and domestic manufacturers.

Our English and Scotch Cheviot Suitings are the best in the world, and when made into garments have a certain style about them, found in no other fabrics.

MILLS & AVERILL,
Merchant Tailoring,
Broadway and Pine.

HEALER SCHRADER.

Poor Results Attend His Efforts to Cure Sufferers in Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 3.—"Healer" Schrader and retinue were brought to Chicago by Mayer Samson to cure his 15-year-old brother, Andrew. For six months young Samson has been completely paralyzed. The doctors could do little good, and Mrs. Samson had tried to try the efficacy of prayer and the laying on of hands.

After the treatment the patient claimed to feel stronger, but the hope of his friends that he would rise and walk were disappointed. But Schrader assured them that within seven days young Andrew would be walking again, and they tried to believe him.

Two days from the third day affected who called upon him did Schrader treat him with the same lack of perfect result and with the same promise of cure. Then he fled from the ridiculous who sought his aid and shunning publicity departed for Jolet.

For Hoarseness and Sore Throat, there is no better remedy than "Brown's Bronchial Troches."

SANDBAGGED IN HIS ROOM.

Maj. Conover Shot One Bobber and Was Knocked Senseless by Another.

PERRY, O. T., March 3.—Maj. R. F. Conover of Perry, formerly of Indiana, a prominent G. A. R. man, was found unconscious in his room at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.

Later he regained his senses, and said that two men entered and grabbed his clothing. He was afraid of the two others who took him senseless with a sandbag which was found on the floor. Conover left a trail of blood. They got considerable money.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup reduces inflammation while children are teething.

His Bones Thin as Egg-Shell.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Joseph Oppenheimer, at 41 years old, has bones of the upper part of his body as thin as egg-shells. His spinal column, the bones of the thorax, and the bones of the arms were covered with small tumors, which had absorbed the bone tissues, leaving only a thin film of skin on the outside. On perdition would have lived longer, in many places if he had dropped to the floor.

Crime Mystery to Be Explained.

CHICAGO, March 3.—The Lake Park police think they will clear up all mystery surrounding the body covered with wounds which was taken from Lake Michigan near the Lake Shore Hotel.

The body is supposed to be that of Gottlieb Able, a cooper from Michigan City, Ind.

REFORM IN TOBACCOGENE'S*MAIL POUCH

No Chemicals
Nicotine Neutralized

No Nerves Quaking

No Heart Palpitating

No Dyspeptic Aching

ANTI-NERVOUS

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC

KANSAS CITYBAMBOOZLED.*Street Car Abuses Exposed by Commissioner Meriwether.*RIDICULOUS ASSESSMENTS.*How Mayor Davis Figured in Manipulations Which Nullified the Julian Law.

In the report of Labor Commissioner Lee Meriwether on the street railways of Missouri, Kansas City will figure prominently.

Conditions in Kansas City, as described to a Post-Dispatch reporter by Mr. Meriwether, are even worse than they have been shown by Mr. Meriwether to be at St. Louis.

Mr. Meriwether encountered in Kansas City candid admissions that conditions are rotten and the statement that they cannot be remedied.

He returned from Kansas City last Saturday and as a result of what he has found in Kansas City and St. Louis, he has recommended a plan of entertainment. He suggests that seats for the delegation be reserved at the Royal American Convention: also that arrangements be made with the Merchants' Exchange, Cupples Station, the two bridges, the breweries and other prominent business and social entertainments at several of the clubs.

In his communication, which is semi-official, Mr. Diaz says "I do not all understand your proposal, but I am willing to join the party. In that case, arrangements should be made for his reception. It will be successful in getting him to make the tour if he can be received in St. Louis and would influence lots of Mexican trade. The feeling of Mexicans is favorable to St. Louis and your merchants should speedily make arrangements to be received from closer relations with this Republic. You have much to overcome before this trade can be established, but you can do it."

To a Post-Dispatch reporter, Mr. Kinsella said: "I am much impressed with the plan. While in the City of Mexico our party was treated very well by President Diaz, who expressed feelings of great friendliness toward the United States and toward St. Louis in particular. If the right effort is made, I think it will be an easy matter to bring this to the city and I shall bring the matter before the various commercial bodies of the city at once with a view to immediate action."

SALVATIONISTS AT WAR.A Serious Break in the Banks Will Follow the Booths' Withdrawal.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 2.—War has at last been formally declared between Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Yesterday Hallington announced that his private religious organization would not conflict with the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While no one was inclined to openly criticize or comment upon Hallington Booth, the retired Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, and the regular forces at present under the leadership of his sister, Miss Eva Booth.

Conditions in the Spanish and Cuban colonies are such that our meetings from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America. It is claimed, however, that he has withdrawn from the ranks of the Salvation Army in America.

While